HOW TO USE THIS REPORT

This report should be used to understand if a North Carolina school participates in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) or a school is a Community Eligible Provision (CEP). Community Eligible Provision (CEP) schools provide meals at no cost to all enrolled students and therefore could make a student eligible for P-EBT.

COLUMN A - "Does the school participate in the National School Lunch Program?" - If "YES" the school participates in the NSLP. If "NO" the school does not participate in the NSLP. If your school is not on this list it means the school does not participate in the NSLP and therefore the students enrolled in that school will not be eligible for P-EBT.

COLUMN B - "Is the school a Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) School?" - A student must also be eligible to receive free or reduced-price meals to be eligible for P-EBT. One of the four eligibility options for a student to be eligible for P-EBT is if a student attends a Community Eligible Provision (CEP) school. If a student attends a CEP school the student receives meals at no cost. If "YES" the school is a CEP school. If "NO" the school is not a CEP school. If the school is not a CEP school the student could still be eligible for free or reduced-price meal based on three of the other eligibility options (specific student eligibility is not reflected in this report):

- 1) Direct Certification (household receives FNS benefits)
- 2) Categorical Eligibility (homeless, migrant, foster, etc.)
- 3) through a Household Applications for Free/Reduced-Price Meals
